40/2014 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

1. A lady informed the meeting that the owner of the Cottage at the end of South View that had the South View nameplate on it, was concerned that residents would think that he had removed it; in fact DDDC had removed the sign.

2. A gentleman asked why the Parish Council had spent money on a notice board to be sited 10 feet away from another notice board. The Chairman responded 'that the board was requested through the residents survey and was only for public notices i.e. small ads etc.

3. A gentleman asked why the Parish Council was paying to have the burial ground mown, when a volunteer had been doing this. The Chairman said that the mowing would be reviewed in September.

4. The lady said that the village had been thoroughly cleaned by DDDC after this had been requested.
