95/2014 ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

95.2014.1 Trees growing out of brook A615 –write to DCC highways

95.2014.2 - Thatchers Lane, request for cutting back brambles – the response from DCC would be chased up.

95.2014.3 Church Street – overhanging trees, the householder would be given a little longer to carry out the work

95.2014.4 Spout Lane – request for works ‘to exposed pipe’ in lane and potholes – this was discussed, along with the ownership of the lane, and the forecourt.

RESOLVED:

To put together specification for work to be carried out to the pipe area, and gain three estimates.

95.2014.5 Snow Wardens – the grit has been ordered, as in previous years, the Chairman would contact previous snow wardens to see if they will continue

95.2014.6 Radfords Row – grit bin request – to request a bin for Radfords Row which will receive a ‘first fill’, this could be incorporated into the snow warden scheme.

96/2014 BURIAL GROUND

Work has been completed, the burial ground looks really good at the present, there is more work to carry out next year, but the graves look so much better.

97/2014 TANSLEY YOUTH CLUB

Last week, the leader did not turn up, so an apology hotwire went out after the event, the parish council did not know that a leader was not in attendance.

RESOLVED:

To no longer continue with the youth club.

98/2014 INFORMAL MEETINGS

Informal meetings can be held, they will not be advertised as Parish Council meetings, which have to fulfil the legal requirements, and any decisions required then will have to be put towards the Parish Council.

99/2014 TANSLEY SCHOOL – REQUEST TO PLACE RECYCLING CONTAINER ON PC LAND (FETE FIELD)

This was discussed and consideration was given to access, and parking problems.

RESOLVED:

Not to site at the Fete Field, but ask school to consider siting at the school, as it would probably be better used.
